18. Kat: "Something went wrong with the memory. The lights went out and everything went weird."

19. Doc: "That's interesting..... What are you seeing now? Take a look around the room."

[Kat awakens into her childhood bedroom inside her mind. The room looks as she remembers it, except for two items (one bad - drawing of dead family, one good - security blanket). She has to look at the bad object first that triggers nightmare mode, but then can view the good clue to return the dream to normal. This repeats the first 3 rooms]

58. News Caster: "A tragedy has befallen Georgia tonight as a family of 5 was attacked in their own home. In the harrowing incident, Martha and Jared Davis along with their two boys, died fending off the attacker. Their heroic antics were not wasted as they were able to save their young daughter, Katheryn, from certain doom. The attacker is still at large, but evidence suggests they would be seriously injured and in need of serious medical attention. If you have seen or heard anything that could be helpful to the case, please call the police immediately. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Davis family on this dark day."
